

SIDE SADDLE ASSOCIATION MEMBERS LEAD IN THE WINNER OF THE TOPHAM CHASE AT AINTREE APRIL 2016

Morgan Schive from Area 8 and Amy Bryan-Dowell from Area 11, led in the Topham Chase winner Eastlake, ridden by Barry Geraghty on the Thursday of the recent Grand National meeting.

Morgan rode the part-bred Irish Draught stallion Cos Me Is Black, owned by Mrs Susan McKim, this was the third time leading in the Topham winner for the partnership. Susan's son, Bruce Langley - McKim is Cos Me Is Black's regular rider, competing him in side saddle classes as well as an active CV including team chasing, hunt rides, field mastering, hunting hounds, trail laying and whipping-in with the Quorn.

Amy rode her own mare 8 year old Bounce. Amy hunts side saddle and is a regular out with the Cheshire, in the Summer the pair goes showing. Bounce has won the Cheshire Show side saddle championship for the past three years and has previously won the Aintree National Show Side Saddle Championship too.
